10 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
11 SAN JOSE DIVISION
12

13 Acacia Media Technologies Corp.,

NO. C 05-01114

14 Plaintiff,

ORDER REQUIRING ADDITIONAL BRIEFING BEFORE THE FEBRUARY 24,
2006 HEARING DATE

15 vs.

16 New Destiny Internet Group, et al.,

17 Defendants.
18

19 And All Related and/or Consolidated
20 Actions.

22 In this MDL litigation, Plaintiff Acacia Media Technologies has filed a "Motion for Entry of 23 Judgment of NonInfringement and Invalidity for Indefiniteness of U.S. Patent No. 6,144,702 and 24 Certification Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ P. 54(b)." The Motion is scheduled to be heard on February 25 24, 2006 at 9 a.m.

26 To date the Court has not received any response by any defendant to the motion. On before
27 February 13, 2006, the Court directs each party to file and served a Memorandum of Law
28 addressing the following issues:

1 1. Whether the Court should regard the pending motion as one in which Acacia is moving
2 for partial summary judgment against Acacia and in favor of all Defendants on all claims of
3 infringement of the '707 patent on the following ground: Based on the Court's December 7, 2005
4 Order, the affirmative defense of invalidity is sustained as a matter of law;

5 2. Whether the Court should also regard the pending motion as one in which Acacia is
6 moving for partial summary judgment against Acacia and in favor of all Defendants on the ground
7 that the accused products of the Defendants do not infringe the '702 patent. The Court notes that it
8 has not adjudicated what are the accused products or whether they infringe the '702 patent.
9 However, the pending motion is one seeking a partial summary judgment of "noninfringement."
10 The Court directs the parties to address any ground for judgment of noninfringement of the '702
11 patent;

12 3. In view of the pending motion to separate further litigation of the '702 patent from all
13 other patents, the Court directs each party to state that party's position with respect to whether any of 14 the issues involved in the '702 patent are present in any of the other patents involved in the MDL
15 case such that the appellate court will not be required to decide the same issues more than once if 16 there are subsequent appeals.

17 Immediately following the hearing on the pending motion, the Court will conduct a Case
18 Management Conference to establish a schedule for further proceedings in the case. On or before
19 February 17, 2006 the parties shall file a Further Case Management Statement which combines 20 their respective positions with respect to what claims must be construed and a schedule for those 21 proceedings. The parties are directed to confer with one another to coordinate the submission of the 22 Further Case Management Statement.

23 Pursuant to General Order 45.VI.G., a paper copy of all the e-filed submissions must be
24 lodged with the Chambers of Judge Ware.
